THE Stanford Colored Fair commences to-morrow and continues three days. We trust our white people will patronize liberally the commendable efforts of their colored brethren.

CUT.—Mr. J. H. Huntley, of the Theatrical Troupe bearing his name, which recently played here, was badly cut by a negro at Frankfort, when he attempted to eject him from the Theatre.

WE ARE glad to state that the Lexington Female College, of which Mrs. S. E. Tarrant is principal, has opened very auspiciously. A large number of Southern girls are among the matriculations.

THE Stanford Female College will open next Monday. In addition to most of the old faculty, Prof. W. K. Jennings, who was here for several seasons, will be connected with the school again this year.

WE HAVE information that the convict who was captured at Nicholasville with Mr. Martin's and somebody else's horses, was no other than Jo Hughes, who had already been sent up for four years for the same offense.

IT is hardly necessary to observe in the face of a four-column advertisement, that Sells Brothers' great show is coming. It is the biggest thing ever in these parts as you will imagine when it is told that it takes 50 cars drawn by three locomotives to more it.

THE order of the Knights of the Golden Rule is about to collapse, those who have the handling of the money, having, it is said, defaulted to the amount of $60,000. The lodge here has an assessment ready to forward, but will investigate before they turn it over to the tender mercies of the Treasurer.

THE horse stolen from Mr. J. M. Martin, of this county, was, together with the thief, captured by the marshal of Nicholasville. The thief proved to be a penitentiary convict for whom a reward had been offered and he is now back in his old quarters. He also had a little bay horse, whose owner has not as yet appeared.

A LOT of fly youths were over here Sunday from Lancaster, and signalled their departure about 10 o'clock at night by yelling like Comanche Indians, and firing off their pistols on the street. Warrants have been issued for J. S. West, S. M. Anderson and W. T. Burdett and they will be shown that the law is supreme in Stanford at least, and that their room is better than their company, if they do not know how to behave themselves.

LADIES, call and examine the light running New Home Sewing Machine, the best in the world, for sale at Chensult, Severance & Co's.

I AM SELLING Laurel County Coal, and my friends and everybody else, will find it to their interest to see me before buying their winter supplies. T. D. Newland.

HARRIS & DAWSON have just received 15 tons of Lake Ice, which they will sell in small lots at 11 cents per pound. Persons wanting large lots can get it on reasonable terms. They will sell manufactured ice at 1 cent per pound.

TWO CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH.—About 7:30 last night the house of Ed. Bright, col'd, in Boneyville, two miles from here, caught fire, and before assistance could be had, two colored children were roasted to death and Rachel Walker, their mother, very badly burned. The house was entirely consumed.

WE RECKON that we were led into the error of publishing the marriage of Hon. M. J. Durham. A telegram in the daily papers from Lexington announced it, but the Judge has rather married nor does he know the lady in question. The joke, if it was so intended, was a cruel one and shows that its perpetrator is ignorant of what constitutes one.

LOW RATES.—The Louisville & Nashville Railroad will sell round trip excursion tickets from Montgomery and all stations north and from Memphis and all stations north, to the Louisville Exposition, from September 4th to October 19th, and to the Cincinnati Exposition, from September 4th to October 5th, at four (4) cents per mile for the round-trip. Tickets sold any day in the week and good to return ten days from date of sale.

A LITTLE fist-fight varied the monotony of our usually quiet streets, Saturday afternoon. W. H. Miller and T. Retherford were the combatants, but they were parted before any serious damage was done. To the Police Judge Mr. Miller promptly and generously acknowledged that he was alone to blame and was let off with the lowest fine, $5 and costs. Mr. R. was acquitted. While we are almost as much opposed to fighting as a Quaker, we are decidedly in favor of the old-fashioned fist-fight, if men must settle their difficulties by an appeal to the god of battles.

COUNTY COURT.—All the officers chosen at the August election qualified yesterday, together with Mrs. E. A. Blain and J. E. Lynn who were sworn in as deputy clerks. J. W. Reid took the oath as police judge of Hustonville. Theophilus and Coleman Carpenter, ill of consumption with no one to support them, were ordered to the Poor House. Jos. Colley qualified as administrator of Lewis Jones, dec'd. There were a great many orders, greater than at any previous court, said Clerk Blain, but they are not interesting to the general public and therefore not worth publishing.

STANFORD is getting to be the best place for conventions. Besides being the most central and the most accessible town in the district, its accommodations are good and sufficient for any crowd that may attend, and we trust that a large delegation may be present on the 29th to give our gallant "Little Phil" a send off. Allowing a vote for each delegate, there will be 71 in attendance as follows: Anderson 6; Boyle 6; Garrard 5; Jackson 1; Jessamine 5; Laurel 3; Lincoln 8; Madison 10; Mercer 8; Owsley 2; Rockcastle 4; Shelby 9 and Spencer 4. It requires but 36 votes to make a nomination, but "Little Phil" will get the whole 71 with a hurrah.

IS HER A THIEF?—About three weeks ago a man giving his name as Henry Compton, sold a pair of mules to Wm. Cloyd, of this county. Mr. C. gave his note for the amount and it fell due Saturday. In the meantime, however, he was informed that mules answering to the description of the ones he had bought had been stolen in Russell county, and on a pretext that he would have to come to Stanford for the money, he induced Compton to come here, when he was immediately put under arrest. On being searched a pistol with T. F. Hicks on the handle was found on his person, and it is supposed that Compton is but an alias. He was ordered to jail.

THE FIRST NATIONAL.—For the purpose of increasing their business, the owners of the stock in the National Bank here, decided some time since to go into liquidation and organize again under a new name. Subscriptions to the First National were started in a very short time the necessary $250,000 capital stock was raised and the cry was still for more. The managers acted very wisely in disposing of the stock, dividing it among as many men and in as many sections as possible. Yesterday the old stockholders voted to go into liquidation on the 4th of October next and a new charter having been obtained, the new stockholders elected the following directors for the new bank, which will commence business on the 4th: H. S. Withers, Dr. T. B. Montgomery, J. S. Hecker, D. W. Vandever, W. P. Tate, Craig Lynn, Sanford Erwin, of Stanford; J. K. McClary, of Mt. Vernon; Hon. Robt. Boyd, of London, and J. G. Freeman, of Williamsburg. A meeting of the directors for an election of officers is called for to-morrow.

RELIGIOUS.

—Eld. W. B. Cloyd will preach at the Christian Church next Sunday, at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M.

—Rev. J. M. Bruce is conducting a protracted meeting at Crab Orchard, which began Sunday, and has already had three additions.

—Tate's Creek Association will meet at Hall's Gap Church next year. Rev. H. T. Daniel was chosen to preach the introductory sermon.

—Mr. Jake G. Owsley was immersed by Eld. J. L. Livingston, Friday. Although very weak, he stood the ceremony well and expressed himself as feeling much better for it.

—Pictures of the Rev. George O. Barnes and Miss Marie graced the columns of the Cincinnati Commercial yesterday.

—The Tates Creek Association of Predestination Baptists will convene at Walnut Flat, Lincoln county, Ky., on Friday, the 15th day of this month and continue three days.

A. C. NEWLAND, Mod'r.

—The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary opened its fall session September 1 with eighty-two matriculants, the largest number of any session since its removal to this city in 1877, when it opened with fifty.

—Rev. Mr. Spurgeon does not believe in nor practice close communion. He says: "I think it is a sin to refuse to commune with any one who is a member of the church of our Lord Jesus Christ. Nothing can separate me from a Christian by whatever name called."

—The Cumberland River Association was held at Flat Lick Church, Polk county, last week and will be held next year at Rock Lick in same county. Mr. E. R. Caldwell, Jr., the clerk, reports a membership of 1,500, an increase over deaths and other losses during the year of 138.

—Last Sabbath morning at Ludlow, Ky., M. E. Church seventy-one persons were received into full communion, and at West Covington thirty-six were received—one hundred and eleven persons in all have been added to the church, which, at the beginning of the year, had only an aggregate membership of seventy persons. The record is exceptional. Rev. J. L. Albritton is pastor.

—The Stanford Methodist Church has raised this year $1511, equal to $1210 for each member, divided as follows: by the Sunday-school, $116; by the Church for preaching salary, $700; benevolent collections, $160; ladies' missionary, $75; church repairs, $400, other expenses $60. Every demand has been paid off or provided for and Mr. Sims presents the books of the church to the Conference squared to a cent, the best report ever made from this charge.

—Rev. J. S. Sims' four year's labor for the church at this point closed Sunday, and with his wife, whom everybody has learned to love, will leave this morning for the Conference at Carlisle, to be sent thence to another field, to which he and his wife will take the prayers of the good and the best wishes of the wicked for their temporal and eternal welfare. It was fitting that a ministry which has been of so great a benefit to the church should conclude so gloriously in an ingathering of souls to Christ, for following the morning service, which was a very fine effort on the "Relations between Pastor and People," the invitation to confess the Savior was responded to by Mr. and Mrs. Adam M. Pence and Miss Ora Hale, Mr. Pence making the confession for the first time, Mrs. Pence coming from another denomination and Miss Hale by letter. The two latter were received without the usual formality, and after Mr. Pence had been baptized the right hand of fellowship was extended the new members by the whole congregation. It was an affecting sight, especially when Mr. Pence's aged mother, overjoyed to have him enter the fold, fell on his neck and wept tears of gratitude that her prayer for years had been answered. The night services were even more refreshing. The sermon was from the text: "Is thy heart right? Then give me thine hand," and was a superior exhortation against church bigotry and a love of one's opinions more than a love for God and his people. At its conclusion Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Alexander, Mrs. S. P. Stagg and Mrs. Daniel Stagg, Jr., came forward, and with the exception of Mrs. Alexander who united by letter, were baptized and received into the church. The right hand of fellowship was extended them, after which Mr. Sims made a neat little address of thanks for kindnesses shown him, both by the members of his and the sister churches of town, since his coming among them, asked that like favors be extended his successor, and then bid his charge an affectionate farewell. We commend him to the people wherever his lot may be cast as a true Christian and a gentleman of many social and endearing qualities.
